

Caption: A car is moving forward along a three-lane road, maintaining its position in the center lane. The road passes through a tunnel, which is equipped with structural elements like a ceiling and tunnel walls. A green traffic light is visible in the upper right corner of the scene, indicating that vehicles can proceed.

Q: How many lanes does the road have where the car is moving?

A: The road has three lanes where the car is moving.

Q: What is visible in the upper right corner of the scene?

A: A green traffic light is visible in the upper right corner of the scene.

Q: Where is the car positioned as it moves forward?

A: The car is positioned in the center lane within a tunnel as it moves forward.